

GREATEST LACE SALE IN OUR HISTORY

The curtain goes up this morning on the Greatest Lace Sale to which you have ever been invited—A sale which will stir St. Louis from end to end.

For three reasons this will prove the most wondrous selling event St. Louis has seen this year.

- FIRST—the volume—The number of yards of rich laces in the sale run well into the hundreds of thousands.
- SECOND—the styles—Every yard is the very latest. No old or discontinued effects.
- THIRD—the values—During an experience of 56 years in lace selling we've never seen better—and that's saying a good deal. Prices average less than half the regular selling figures.

"How do we quote such prices?" you ask. Here's why—

You can count on your fingers the stores that prospered during October—good as times are. The weather has been so pleasant that winter things haven't been needed. People have had no thought of buying. For that reason the stores themselves have stopped buying, which sends the Wholesalers to this ONE great prosperous store to unload their goods.

So we've bought—carefully, generously—at great savings, and these laces stand first among the purchases. Read on:

USEFUL SUGGESTIONS

Safety pins are good substitutes when a button is not handy, but do not use them on children's clothing, as they are liable to be inhaled.

Some housekeepers put a peeled onion inside a bowl that is to be kept for any length of time. This absorbs the odors and keeps the bowl fresh.

Instead of throwing bits of toilet soap away, keep them in a jar as they are good for many uses.

MASS MEETING FOR RUSSIAN JEWS

St. Louis Community Will Aid Victims of Recent Massacres in the Czar's Domain—Immediate Action Urged.

A mass meeting in the interest of the Jewish victims in the recent Russian massacres will be held in St. Louis next Sunday. The place and exact time of meeting will be announced to-morrow.

The plan for a mass meeting was hastily decided upon yesterday, when Moshe Fraley received a telegram from Jacob H. Schiff of the New York Jewish Relief Committee, urging immediate action.

Mr. Schiff's telegram to Mr. Fraley follows: "On behalf of National Committee for relief of suffering Russian Jews, of which I have been appointed treasurer, I urge you and your associates to call a meeting of Jewish community to form branch committee and collect immediate funds. Necessity very great. Conditions appalling."

The National Committee has sent similar telegrams all over the United States.

ADJOURNS MRS. WARREN CASE.

Hearing of Suit Growing Out of Shaw Play Put Off to Tuesday.

New York, Nov. 9.—The case growing out of the Shaw play, in which George Bernard Shaw's play, with the police officer as the hero, was the subject of a suit for libel, was adjourned today until next Tuesday.

NEW RECIPIES.

FRONCH PEAS.—Take a cup of June peas, strain through a colander and pour boiling water over them. Boil for 10 minutes, then add salt and butter. Drain and serve with a little cream.

PERFUME OF FEATHER BEDS.—Feather beds are most unwholesome. The only safe way to keep them is to use a perfume of cedar leaves. This prevents the growth of germs and makes the beds comfortable.

CARE OF CHILDREN'S TEETH.—Always clean a young child's teeth both night and morning. A toothbrush should be used, as the little gums are so tender. All that is necessary is to use a piece of lint dipped in warm water.

TO HAPPINESS.—Mistress Happiness, we wanted for you long. Take a walk. An warm bed. Here's suggest an a song! —Atlanta Constitution.

"MUMS" HOLD SWAY AT FLORAL SHOW

Brothers Capture First Prize for Best Twenty-Five Blooms of One Variety in the Showy Flower.

Queen Chrysanthemum reigned at the St. Louis Flower Show at Westminster Hall yesterday. Blooms of white, yellow, pink, bronze and red, as well as a number of potted plants bearing hundreds of blooms, greeted the eyes of the visitors.

It is astonishing the way the chrysanthemum has been increased in size, beauty and strength, said James G. Dunne, gardener emeritus of Shaw's garden, and superintendent of Tower Grove Park. "Since the flower has become the popular flower of floriculturists its development has been marvelous."

Chrysanthemum is one of the most striking examples of cultivation. The deep red I don't believe I have ever before seen such a magnificent display of showy flowers. I don't believe I have ever before seen such a magnificent display of showy flowers.

Intensity, a new red chrysanthemum, exhibited by Pochmann Bros., received the first prize for the best twenty-five blooms of one variety, any color. The name "Intensity" suggests the deep red of this new flower. The plant is entirely of small flower habit, but in color and form it is all that could be desired, as the foliage is good and the stems long and firm.

Timothy Eaton won the first prize in the best twenty-five white class. W. J. Connelley and M. S. Vesey were the exhibitors. Connelley exhibited a handsome white chrysanthemum, won for Mrs. Vesey the first prize in the yellow class. Yellow Eaton claimed second for B. J. Hill.

Dunne-Thompson received first prize in the pink class in Dexter Engelhardt's large double-pink flower. The exhibitor, Lord Heston, an exhibitor by Pochmann Bros., was a winner in the best twenty-five red class.

In the class calling for the best forty-eight blooms, eight varieties, six of each, William Abbott & Co. received first prize with Timothy Eaton, white Perry Pochmann, straw color Victor Mord, pink Lord Heston, red, William Dunne, pink Dexter Engelhardt, pink, Colonel Appleton, yellow.

Mrs. Vesey got second prize with Princeton.
